Paul Robert Carey Foundation

20 Corporate Woods Blvd.
Suite 600
Albany, NY 12211

Paul Robert Carey, beloved seventh son of former New York Governor Hugh L. Carey and the late Helen Owen Carey served as special assistant to President Clinton for Legislative Affairs and also as the 77th Commissioner of U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Former President Clinton spoke of Paul's "Shining Spirit" which will live on forever. Paul achieved many of his greatest accomplishments in public service while battling cancer and he found great strength in helping others fight the disease. The Paul Robert Carey Foundation was founded by his family, friends and physician to return the blessing we all shared in him by enabling people battling cancer and other diseases to obtain vital quality of life needs and services not funded by traditional medical reimbursement. Paul Robert Carey Quality of Life Funds have been established at: Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center (MSKCC), Albany Medical Center Children's Hospital, Elmhurst Hospital, Providence Health Foundation and Jacobi Medical Center. The Foundation has sponsored funding for: Research in Nuclear Medicine at MSKCC, Cancer Community of Solution, American Cancer Society's Camp Adventure and Adaptive Sports Foundation.
